Bayan exec killed; 'Amnesty' alarmed over leftist deaths

THE CHAIR OF THE BAYAN MALOLOS (BULACAN) chapter was killed at 8 last night, even as Amnesty International yesterday said it was "gravely concerned" over the killings of left-wing activists in the Philippines and urged the administration of President Macapagal-Arroyo to send a clear message to security forces that extrajudicial killings would not be tolerated.

Basilan hero, 24 others investigated

By Dona Z. Pazzibugan

A SCOUT RANGER CAPTAIN dubbed as a hero of the 2001 siege of Basilan has been detained along with 24 elite officers and men in what appears to be a widening crackdown in the military on those allegedly involved in the attempt to unseat President Macapagal-Arroyo last month.

Lt. Gen. Hermogenes Esperon, the Army chief, and Michael Defensor, presidential chief of staff, also dismissed details on Wednesday by Brig. Gen. Danilo Lim, the sacked Scout Rangers commander, when he appeared at the National Bureau of Investigation that he had plotted the overthrow of Ms Arroyo.

Defensor told Palace reporters that an ABC-5 TV interview with Lim, in which the latter reportedly said he was withdrawing support from the President, was the spark that prompted Ms Arroyo to move against the plotters in the early morning hours of Feb. 24.

ABC-5 denied Defensor's claim. News anchor Juan [illegible] said the network did not interview Lim. "ABC-5 values the freedom of media through responsible, free and [illegible] reporting," he said in Filipino.

Esperon confirmed the arrest of Capt.

"HERO OF THE LAMITAN SIEGE" in Basilan in 2001, Capt. Ruben Guinolbay, now the Scout Rangers' personnel chief, is one of only two officers named by the Army chief as allegedly involved in the Feb. 24 coup attempt. Guinolbay and his troops fiercely fought the Abu Sayyaf kidnappers who used their hostages as human shields to escape.

AN ANTICRIME GROUP AND THE FAMILIES of victims and survivors of the Feb. 4 stampede at the PhilSports Arena (formerly Ultra) in Pasig City are not pleased with the recommendations of the National Bureau of Investigation.

Dante Jimenez, founding chair of the Volunteers Against Crime and Corruption, yesterday said those to be held liable for criminal charges should include not only ABS-CBN chair and CEO Eugenio "Gabby" Lopez III but also Senior Supt. Raul Medina, the chief of the Pasig police at the time of the stampede.

"He (Lopez) should also face similar charges," said survivor Nelditha Catubig, 38.

The Palace official phoned a network officer at the height of the standoff on Feb. 26 and asked that ABS-CBN stop both its coverage and live broadcast of the event, Maria Ressa said.

DOJ junks ₱151-M tax evasion case vs Lee

By Michael Lim Ubac and Armand N. Nocum

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE dismissed last year a ₱151-million tax evasion case against a "dummy" corporation of suspected smuggler Samuel Lee on the grounds that the Bureau of Internal Revenue had charged the company's previous batch of officers, not its current ones.

Justice Secretary Raul Gonzalez on Wednesday said that Lee was not "untouchable."

The tax evasion case against Columbia Sports Philippines Inc. was filed in April 2005 in the justice department. It took the department under Gonzalez only six months to dismiss the case.

"We find no merit in the complaint," said the four-page resolution penned by State Prosecutor Edwin Dayog on Oct. 28, 2005. It noted that the "record is replete with documentary evidence suggesting that herein respondents were not the responsible officers."

Lawyer Joan Agbayani of the BIR's Run After Tax Evaders (RATE) task force lamented that Gonzalez's action in the case of Columbia Sports prevented the

The elderly look after each other with caring hands

By Blanche S. Rivera

IN HOLDING THE WITHERED, caring hand of another, even those who have been left behind feel that they are not alone.

Faced with family members leaving for work abroad, the elderly in the country are learning to care for each other through a home care assistance program of the Coalition of Services for the Elderly Inc. (Cose).

Cose, an umbrella of 45 organizations for senior citizens, has trained more than 470 home care assistants, masseurs and community gerontologists—specialists on aging and the problems of the aged—who serve the elderly in Metro Manila.

"Home Care is essentially older persons caring for older persons," said Ofelia Hepano, a volunteer caregiver from Commonwealth in Quezon City.

"There is nobody left at home to take care of us, so we will take care of ourselves," she said.

Cose relaunched its Home Care Assistance Program (HCAP) at the Sulo Hotel in Quezon City yesterday to urge local government leaders to replicate the program in different cities and municipalities nationwide.

Under the HCAP, the elderly—defined by law as those 60 years and older—are trained to check blood pressure, pulse rates and other respiratory indicators, bathe and feed bedridden patients, give first aid and counsel those who are suffering from depression.

Community gerontologists are
